

ENT / Otolaryngology Specialist, Sweden

Switch to island time on the pearl in the middle of the Baltic Sea! Enjoy fresh sea air and the small scale of the archipelago in a safe environment. Go from island to island. Stop when you see an enticing sign on the side of the road – it could lead you to a small farm bakery, craft stall, art exhibition, or farm.

The hospital in question is situated on an island between Finland and Sweden. Although the island is Finnish, the language spoken is Swedish. It has approximately 30,000 inhabitants (and growing).

We are looking for an ENT Specialist to join the team. Are you seeking a role that offers both career growth and a unique lifestyle? Imagine working in a stunning location where work-life balance is not just a promise but a reality.

We are looking for someone who:

Has an EU specialist approval in ENT.

Has experience in handling a broad range of cases, including paediatric patients.

Can work independently and manage both routine and complex procedures.

Possesses strong communication skills and a collaborative spirit to work effectively with colleagues.

What the hospital offers:

A stimulating workplace in a beautiful and tranquil setting.

A supportive team and an excellent work environment.

Regular opportunities for professional development.

Work hours designed to promote work-life balance (38.25 hours per week).

What we offer:

Dedicated support from a recruiter before, during, and after your employment.

Assistance with relocation, including help with accommodation and travel arrangements.

Support for your family if needed.

Access to a free language course via Teams/Skype.
