

General Nurse, Norway

We offer numerous exciting opportunities for nurses who are interested in moving to Norway, a country known for its high-quality healthcare system, balanced work-life culture and beautiful natural landscapes.

Your role:

Providing holistic care to patients, addressing their medical, hygienic and social needs.
Monitoring patients' vital signs and keeping records of their health progress.
Administering medications and treatments as prescribed by doctors.
Performing blood draws and other routine medical procedures.
Collaborating with a multidisciplinary team to deliver optimal care.
Offering emotional support and clear communication to patients and their families.
Working in both hospital and home care settings, adapting to each patient's individual needs.

Qualifications:

Hold a valid nursing authorisation from an EU country.
Have previous work experience as a nurse, with a preference for those who have experience in hospitals or community care settings.
Be proficient with basic computer skills, necessary for modern healthcare environments.
Speak and write English fluently. Candidates must also be motivated to learn Norwegian.
Hold a bachelor's degree in nursing (BSN).
A driver's license may be required for certain home care positions.

Personal qualities:

Strong communication skills and the ability to work well in a team-oriented environment.
A responsible, structured, and flexible approach to patient care.
The ability to remain calm and perform under pressure, handling stressful situations with a professional attitude.
Respect for patients' individual needs and a compassionate approach to their care.
A strong desire to move to Norway and integrate into Norwegian society, bringing your family along for a rewarding experience.
A genuine passion for nursing, combined with a clear understanding of your professional responsibilities and limitations.
The ability to prioritise tasks and maintain a solution-oriented mindset.

What we offer:

Competitive salary packages and pension plans.
A permanent employment opportunity in a supportive and friendly environment.
A clear path for professional growth and development.
Free online Norwegian language courses with a private tutor to ease your transition.
Full assistance with obtaining Norwegian nursing authorisation.

Comprehensive support with relocation logistics, including help with accommodation, schools, and childcare for your family.

Guidance from professional headhunters with 19 years of experience, who will assist you throughout the entire process.
