

General Pathologist, Sweden

Are you an experienced pathologist seeking a rewarding career in Sweden? Welcome to a modern pathology laboratory in the midst of an exciting digital transformation!

Work with tissue sample diagnostics, supervision of resident physicians, autopsies, and macroscopic examinations. You will become an integral part of our educational environment as a university healthcare unit affiliated with Linköping University.

Approximately 50,000 cases per year – a broad and stimulating practice

Digital transformation: new scanners, image management systems, and AI support

Development within molecular pathology

No on-call duties

Close proximity to decision-making – your ideas are taken seriously

We are looking for someone who:

is a specialist physician in clinical pathology/cytology - Have several years of experience in pathology - Hold a medical degree from the EU/EEA or have at least 3 years of experience from an EU country - Have Swedish language skills at C1 level (we offer free language training!) - Possess good IT proficiency

About the offer:

We offer - Permanent employment at a modern university hospital - Competitive specialist salary - Free Swedish language instruction (C1 level) with a stipend of €1,300/month - Comprehensive 6-month induction program - Full relocation support: housing, medical licensing, and integration - No on-call shifts – excellent work-life balance - Research and method development opportunities - Future-oriented operations featuring AI and molecular pathology

To Apply:

Please send your CV mentioning reference SW57 at info@phd-jobs.net

Tel.: +40 765 734 800

Contact person: Vitaly Pryadka

Web: <http://www.phd-jobs.net>