

Geriatric specialist, Norway

The Medicine Department provides comprehensive diagnostic and therapeutic care across multiple specialties, emphasising acute care and ongoing advancements. The geriatric ward prioritises teamwork, professional growth, and close collaboration with a skilled nursing staff. Additionally, the clinic has an active research component, offering opportunities for clinical involvement and continuous improvement.

Responsibilities:

As a geriatric specialist, you will have a varied role encompassing both inpatient and outpatient work. The weekend on-call rotation is divided into six parts, with all senior doctors rotating through different tasks. This structure provides an excellent opportunity for diverse professional development.

Qualifications:

European authorisation as a medical professional.

European certification in internal medicine and geriatrics.

Knowledge and expertise in geriatrics.

Strong communication skills in English and motivation to learn Norwegian (free language course provided).

Clean criminal record, documented with a police certificate in accordance with the Health Personnel Act.

Personal attributes:

Positive contributor to multidisciplinary teams.

Strong internal and external communication skills.

Self-sufficient, responsible, and committed to high-quality patient care.

Flexibility and adaptability in a fast-paced environment.

The hospital offers:

A collaborative and supportive work environment, where laughter and teamwork thrive even on busy days, underscoring our belief that a positive atmosphere is key to success. Opportunities for research and professional development—explore your ideas and contribute to a culture of innovation.

Close cooperation with nursing staff, with plans for a new training program in acute geriatrics, fostering knowledge sharing and skill growth.

A stimulating clinical environment, where no two days are alike, and curiosity and openness drive continuous improvement.

Competitive salary, welfare, insurance and pension benefits.

Benefits:

Continuous support from a personal advisor before, during and after employment.

Assistance with Norwegian authorisation and specialist approval if needed.

Help with accommodation and travel, including support for family relocation.

Free language school with a private tutor online.

To Apply:

Please send your CV mentioning reference DM-357 at info@phd-jobs.net

Tel.: +44 20 8144 2822

Contact person: Vitaly Pryadka

Web: <http://www.phd-jobs.net>

