Gynecologist, Norway

We are currently hiring for both permanent positions and temporary assignments in Norway and Sweden.

Permanent positions:
We are looking for experienced gynecologists to join our healthcare teams in Norway and Sweden on a permanent basis. You will play a crucial role in providing high-quality women's health services. Scandinavia is known for a high standard of healthcare, a patient-centric approach, and an excellent work-life balance.

Temporary assignments:
If you are interested in temporary assignments, we offer flexible options. You can choose between a 1-month on, 1-month off rotation or a 2-week on, 2-week off rotation. This flexibility allows you to take on new professional challenges abroad while continuing to reside in your home country.

Qualifications:
Medical license and specialist approval from an EU country.
Minimum two years of experience as a specialist in gynecology.
Ability to manage a broad patient spectrum with varying diagnoses.
Strong communication skills and willing to learn one of the Scandinavian languages.

We offer:
Professional headhunters dedicated to your success.
Competitive salary.
Professional development opportunities
Free language course done with a private tutor online.
Assistance with relocation, including accommodation, schools, kindergartens, and more.
Flexibility in work schedule for temporary assignments. We cover travel and accommodation for our temporary doctors.
