

Internal Medicine Specialist, Norway

The hospital offers comprehensive services across internal medicine, with specialists in cardiology, nephrology, gastroenterology and endocrinology. Collaboration across departments and locations ensures access to expertise, regular teaching, and MDT meetings, supporting a well-rounded professional environment.

Responsibilities:

As an internal medicine specialist, you will participate in a 7-part tertiary on-call rotation, ensuring comprehensive patient coverage. Your primary responsibilities will include the assessment, diagnosis and treatment of patients within the field of internal medicine. You'll also play a key role in supporting resident doctors by providing guidance and actively participating in their training. In addition, you will contribute to the growth and development of the internal medicine specialty, engaging in teaching and research activities within the department to help drive continuous improvement and innovation.

Qualifications:

European authorisation as a medical professional.

European certification in internal medicine or a subspecialty.

Strong communication skills in English and motivation to learn Norwegian (free language course provided).

Clean criminal record, documented with a police certificate in accordance with the Health Personnel Act.

Personal attributes:

Desire and motivation for professional development and high-quality patient care

Ability to contribute positively to collaboration within our multidisciplinary environment

Capacity to work independently with a strong sense of responsibility

Effective communication skills, both internal and external

The Hospital offers:

The department offers an active and engaged professional environment.

Excellent opportunities for professional development and research.

Varied responsibilities across outpatient clinic, inpatient ward and emergency intake.

Competitive salary, welfare, insurance and pension benefits.

Benefits:

Ongoing support from a dedicated advisor throughout employment.

Help with Norwegian authorisation and specialist approval if needed.

Assistance with accommodation, travel, and family relocation support.

Free private tutoring in the Norwegian language online.

To Apply:

Please send your CV mentioning reference DM-356 at info@phd-jobs.net

Tel.: +44 20 8144 2822

Contact person: Vitaly Pryadka

Web: <http://www.phd-jobs.net>