

Consultant Mammography/Breast Radiology, Ireland

Location: Cork, Ireland

Salary: €224437 - €269594 p/a

Calling experienced Radiologists with a special interest in Breast Radiology. You could be embarking on an exceptional opportunity to provide specialised breast imaging services in a state-of-the-art medical facility, all while enjoying the vibrant lifestyle and rich cultural heritage of Cork. Contribute to comprehensive patient care in a dynamic and innovative healthcare environment.

Benefits:

Competitive Salary: Earn between €224,437 and €269,594 annually.

Generous Time Off: Enjoy 30 days of annual leave plus 10 public holidays.

Professional Development: Access up to €12,000 annually for continuous medical education and benefit from dedicated training leave.

Innovation Support: Receive up to €8,000 per annum to support your innovative projects.

On-Call Allowance: Earn up to €40,629 per annum for on-call duties.

Requirements:

Specialist Qualification: Possess a specialist qualification in Radiology with expertise in breast radiology.

Breast Imaging Fellowship: Must have completed a fellowship in breast imaging.

Professional Experience: Demonstrated experience in breast radiology across Ireland, the United Kingdom, the United States, or Canada.

Medical Council Registration: Must have Specialist Registration with the Irish Medical Council.

Why Move to Cork?

Cork, located in the south of Ireland, offers a unique blend of urban excitement, cultural richness, and natural beauty. Living and working in Cork provides:

Cultural Vibrancy: Experience a lively arts scene, historical landmarks, and numerous festivals celebrating music, film, and local heritage.

Gastronomic Delights: Enjoy a diverse culinary landscape with renowned restaurants, cozy cafes, and traditional Irish pubs. Cork is often referred to as Ireland's food capital.

Quality of Life: Benefit from excellent schools, top-tier healthcare facilities, and a safe, family-friendly environment. Cork is known for its warm and welcoming community.

Outdoor Activities: Explore the stunning landscapes, including beautiful coastlines, mountains, and parks. Ideal for hiking, cycling, and water sports.

Accessible Location: With a well-connected airport and efficient public transport, Cork offers easy access to the rest of Ireland and Europe.

To Apply:

Please send your CV mentioning reference M-39 at info@phd-jobs.net

Tel.: +44 20 8144 2822

Contact person: Vitaly Pryadka

Web: <http://www.phd-jobs.net>