

Consultant Microbiologist, Ireland

Locations: Kerry and Cork

Salary: €224'437 - €269'594 p/a

Calling all skilled Microbiologists looking for a dynamic role split between two leading hospitals! Join the medical teams in the beautiful regions of Kerry and Cork, Ireland. This position offers the unique opportunity to provide expert microbiological services across two hospitals, contributing to high-quality patient care in both settings. Enjoy a fulfilling career while experiencing the rich cultural and natural beauty of these regions.

Benefits:

Competitive Salary: Earn between €224,437 and €269,594 annually.

Generous Time Off: Enjoy 30 days of annual leave plus 10 public holidays.

Professional Development: Access up to €12,000 annually for continuous medical education and benefit from dedicated training leave.

Innovation Support: Receive up to €8,000 per annum to support your innovative projects.

On-Call Allowance: Earn up to €40,629 per annum for on-call duties.

Requirements:

Specialist Qualification: Possess a specialist qualification in Microbiology.

Medical Council Registration: Must have Specialist Registration with the Irish Medical Council.

Why Move to Kerry and Cork?

Living and working in Kerry and Cork offers a unique blend of cultural richness, natural beauty, and vibrant communities. These regions provide:

Cultural and Artistic Vibrancy (Cork): Experience a lively arts scene, historical landmarks, and numerous festivals celebrating music, film, and local heritage. Cork is often referred to as Ireland's food capital.

Scenic Beauty (Kerry): Enjoy breathtaking views of rugged coastlines, serene beaches, and rolling hills. Kerry is perfect for outdoor enthusiasts and nature lovers.

Quality of Life: Benefit from excellent schools, top-tier healthcare facilities, and a safe, family-friendly environment. Both regions are known for their friendly and welcoming communities.

Outdoor Activities: Explore the stunning landscapes, including beautiful coastlines, mountains, and parks in both Kerry and Cork. Ideal for hiking, cycling, and water sports.

Community and Lifestyle: Participate in vibrant local communities with various cultural events, farmers' markets, and festivals celebrating local traditions and crafts.

Accessibility: With well-connected transport links, these regions offer easy access to the rest of Ireland and Europe, providing the perfect balance between rural tranquility and urban convenience.

To Apply:

Please send your CV mentioning reference M-38 at info@phd-jobs.net

Tel.: +44 20 8144 2822

Contact person: Vitaly Pryadka

Web: <http://www.phd-jobs.net>