

Doctor (dermatologist, aesthetic medicine doctor...) for botox/hyaluronic procedures, Switzerland

What we offer:

Treatments using state-of-the-art equipment combined with aesthetic medicine and classic cosmetics in an exclusive ambience.

Varied professional responsibilities under good employment conditions in a pleasant working environment.

We also offer an above-average salary plus a variable share in sales, flexible working hours, and continuous training opportunities.

We are looking for a motivated, professional, and experienced dermatologist with a 60-100% workload to join our team in our competent and established cosmetics institute in the heart of Zurich. Start date is October 2018 or as agreed.

You enjoy handling ambitious customer expectations and a discrete, orderly and accurate way of working is a matter of course for you.

You speak fluent German. Additional languages are an advantage. Your stylish and neat appearance is as natural as your efficient working manner.

Workload: 60-100%

Responsibilities:

- Consulting and advising customers, particularly in aesthetic dermatology
- Performing aesthetic procedures with hyaluron and botulinum
- Performing laser treatments as needed
- Scheduling appointments with customers

Profile:

- Credentials in dermatology
- Several years of experience in aesthetic medicine (hyaluron and botulinum)
- Experience with laser treatments desired
- Independent, flexible, resilient & professional
- Customer-oriented work style
- A neat appearance
- Willingness to help and happy to work in a team
- Excellent German language skills (additional language skills are an advantage)
- The referral of your own regular customers is an advantage

We offer a modern, friendly working environment with flexible working hours as well as competitive fixed and variable compensation.
